

Collegeville Borough Seeking Two Residents to Become Members of the Planning Commission

Residents of Collegeville Borough are eligible to apply for two new open positions on the Collegeville Planning Commission. Although terms are usually for four years, these two positions fill the unexpired terms of two resigning members who are moving out of the borough. Both positions would begin in October 20, 2023 and end Dec. 31, 2025.

Collegeville's Planning Commission is an advisory board consisting of seven members. The Planning Commission makes recommendations to Borough Council on all land development and subdivision applications submitted to the Borough.

The Planning Commission meets on the third Thursday of each month at 7 p.m. both via Zoom and in person at Collegeville Borough Hall, 491 E. Main St., Collegeville, PA 19426.

The majority of the Planning Commission's duties pertain to the review of land development and subdivision plans. However, the Commission also reviews proposed changes to the Zoning Ordinance and Zoning Map; proposed changes to the Subdivision and Land Development Ordinances, Comprehensive Plan writing and revisions, rezoning petitions, and conditional use applications.

The Commissioners are appointed by Borough Council and receive no compensation. Commissioners are encouraged to attend education and training seminars which are paid for by the Borough.
